Neverwonder at Brixton

(Updated: Thursday, August 21, 2008 10:09 AM PDT)

Voted the "best alternative rock band" at last year's South Bay Music Awards, Neverwonder will make its South Bay debut at Brixton in Redondo Beach Wednesday, Aug. 27.

Neverwonder features Andres Ramos, Megan Bobo, Vincent Ramos and Flint Mavis.

The group recently released a three-song sampler from its forthcoming sophomore album, a follow-up to its self-titled debut album.

"The new songs for our second CD are off the hook," said bassist and vocalist Vincent Ramos. "The chorus are just great, also there's a little edge to the music."

The newest addition to Neverwonder is vocalist Megan Bobo, who finished in the top 24 finalists during Season 5 of "American Idol," the year that saw Taylor Hicks take the title. Also in the band is guitarist/vocalist Flint Mavis and drummer/vocalist Andres Ramos.

Brixton is located at 100 "J" Fisherman's Wharf on the Redondo Beach Pier.

Question of the Week

Question: A group of plastic bag manufacturers, distributors and retailers filed a lawsuit against Manhattan Beach challenging the city's recent ban of the shopping sacks. The coalition, SaveThePlasticBag.com, filed its suit against the city Aug. 12 with the Los Angeles Superior Court and claims that the city justified the bag ban with misleading information and a biased, not thorough environmental impact study.

\ Should the city fight this lawsuit?*

\ Does the plastic bag coalition have a chance?*

\ Is banning plastic bags the right course of action for the city?*
